

ArcRoyal Terms and Conditions of Purchase

Clause 1: General

1.1 These Terms and Conditions shall apply to the purchase of Goods (being any products (or services) of Seller) by Buyer (ArcRoyal® or any of its affiliates) from Seller (the other party). These Terms and Conditions shall apply to and form part of the supply contract (being the contract formed by Seller's acceptance of a Purchase Order (as defined below) or any other contract formed by the Seller and Buyer) (the "Supply Contract").

1.2 For the avoidance of doubt, it is emphasized that these Terms and Conditions are to be read in conjunction with the Supply Contract in place between Buyer and Seller. In the event of any discrepancy or contradiction between these Terms and Conditions and the provisions of the Supply Contract, the Supply Contract shall take precedence.

1.3 In the absence of a Supply Contract, these Terms and Conditions shall constitute the sole legal instrument governing the contractual relationship between the Buyer and the Seller.

1.4 Seller has read and understands these Terms and Conditions and agrees that Seller's acceptance of or its performance in relation to a Purchase Order shall constitute Seller's acceptance of these Terms and Conditions to the exclusion of any other terms and conditions including, but not limited to, any terms and conditions of sale and/or supply of Seller. In addition, for the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, 1980 shall not apply to this Agreement.

1.5 Seller shall be obliged to take all reasonable steps to mitigate any loss that might arise out of any Supply Contract.

Clause 2: Purchase Orders

2.1 Buyer shall issue a purchase order (the "Purchase Order") for Goods to Seller. Acceptance of a Purchase Order by Seller is expressly limited to the terms of the Purchase Order and to these Terms and Conditions (and any Supply Contract). Any additional or different terms and conditions including but not limited to any terms and conditions of Seller contained in any quotations or other documents relating to Goods from Seller prior to the issue of a Purchase Order are expressly excluded and shall not form part of any Supply Contract. Each Purchase Order accepted by Seller pursuant to Clause 2.2 will constitute a separate and individual Supply Contract. Date of delivery shall be specified in each Purchase Order.

2.2 Seller will forward a written acceptance of the Purchase Order within two (2) working days after Seller's receipt of said Purchase Order. In any event any performance by Seller in relation to a Purchase Order will constitute acceptance of such Purchase Order. In the event that Seller does not forward a written acceptance or start performance in relation to a Purchase Order within two (2) working days after Seller's receipt of the Purchase Order, Buyer shall be entitled, but not obliged, to revoke such Purchase Order without incurring any liability to Seller.

2.3 Buyer shall have the right at any time to amend or vary a Supply Contract or a Purchase Order in any respect including, but not limited to, specifications, drawings, designs, construction, time of delivery, packaging, quality, quantity and means of shipment. If Buyer amends a Purchase Order, its liability to Seller shall be limited to payment to Seller of all costs reasonably incurred by Seller in fulfilling the Purchaser Order up until the date of receipt of the notice of amendment, except where the amendment results from Seller's failure to comply with its obligations under the Supply Contract in which case Buyer shall have no liability to Seller.

2.4 Any modification to the Goods shall require the prior written consent of Buyer.

2.5 Without prejudice to or limiting any other rights or remedies Buyer may have under any Supply Contract, Seller undertakes to inform Buyer as soon as reasonably practicable if any Purchase Order cannot be fulfilled or if delivery of a Purchase Order will be delayed.

2.6 Seller shall maintain a delivery capacity that permits Seller to deliver the Goods in accordance with accepted Purchaser Orders within the lead times specified in each such Purchase Order.

2.7 The Goods provided pursuant to the Purchase Order shall conform to any specification of requirements issued by the Buyer, either in writing or otherwise, and/or to any sample, advertisement, catalogue, brochure, or performance description offered by the Seller.

2.8 As a general obligation, all goods provided pursuant to the Purchase Order shall be fit for their intended purpose, shall comply with all applicable regulations, legislative provisions, and safety standards.

Clause 3: Termination

3.1 Buyer may cancel a Purchase Order in respect of all or any part of the Goods by giving notice to Seller at any time prior to delivery or performance, in which case Buyer's sole liability shall be to pay to Seller the price for the Goods in respect of which Buyer has exercised its right of cancellation (except where the amendment results from Seller's failure to comply with its obligations under the Supply Contract in which case Buyer shall have no liability to Seller), less Seller's net saving of cost arising from cancellation.

3.2 Buyer may, without liability to Seller, terminate a Supply Contract immediately by notice to Seller, if Seller (i) shall commit a breach of the Supply Contract, which is not (in the opinion of Buyer) capable of remedy; or (ii) shall commit a breach of the Supply Contract, which is capable of remedy but Seller fails to remedy the same within thirty (30) days of a notice from Buyer specifying the breach and requiring it to be remedied.

3.3 If either party becomes insolvent, or liquidation or insolvency proceedings of any nature (including any analogous proceedings in any jurisdiction outside Ireland) are commenced or threatened in relation to that party or that party makes any voluntary composition with its creditors or an encumbrancer takes possession or a receiver is appointed over any of the property or assets of that party, the other party shall, without liability to that party, be entitled to terminate the Supply Contract forthwith by written notice.

3.4 Termination of any Supply Contract under this Clause 3 shall be without prejudice to the accrued rights and liabilities of the parties and shall not affect the coming into or continuance in force of any provision which is expressly or by implication to come into or to continue in force after such termination.

3.5 Buyer may terminate any Supply Contract in the manner stated elsewhere in these Terms and Conditions.

Clause 4: Delivery Dates, Delay and Force Majeure

4.1 Delivery dates and quantities shall be as set out in the Purchase Order. Seller acknowledges that delivery times and quantities are of the essence and Buyer may reject and/or return at Seller's expense any delivery of Goods or part thereof received before or after the delivery date or in excess of the quantity specified in the Purchase Order.

4.2 Unless otherwise specified by Buyer, all Goods will be supplied directly to Buyer's facility in Kells, Co. Meath, Ireland.

4.3 No changes shall be made to the lead times for any batch of Goods without the prior written consent of the Buyer.

4.4 Seller agrees to take all actions necessary and appropriate to ensure that Goods are received by Buyer as required under the relevant Supply Contract. Seller will inform Buyer promptly of any occurrence which will or may result in any delay of delivery at any time or which will or may result in Seller's inability to fulfill the quantities specified in the Purchase Order. Seller shall also advise Buyer in writing of corrective measures which Seller is taking to minimize the effect of such occurrence.

4.5 If Seller fails for any reason whatsoever to effect delivery consistent with the delivery dates specified in the Purchase Order, Buyer shall be entitled to recover from Seller all actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages including, but not limited to, losses and damages relating to and arising out of incremental cost of labour, transportation, production changes and storage.

4.6 If the parties agree on a buffer stock to be maintained by the Seller, Seller is obliged to notify Buyer at monthly intervals of the latest status of this stock.

4.7 Neither the Buyer nor the Seller shall be liable for delay or failure to perform under these Terms and Conditions resulting from any occurrence or event which could not have been reasonably avoided, including, but not limited to, accident, action of the elements, act of God, civil commotion, enemy action, epidemic, explosion, fire, flood, insurrection, pandemic, strike, lockout or other labour trouble or shortage, natural catastrophe, riot, unavailability or shortage of material, equipment, or transportation, war (whether or not declared), act, demand or requirement of law or of any other competent governmental authority, or other cause or circumstances beyond the control of such party; provided, however, that the affected party shall promptly resume performance upon cessation of such cause or circumstance.

Such policies shall provide for cancellation only upon 30 days prior written notice to Buyer.

13.3 Buyer's examination of, or failure to request or demand any evidence of insurance hereunder, shall not constitute a waiver of any requirement of this Clause 13 and the existence of any insurance shall not limit Seller's obligation under any Clause hereof.

13.4 Save to the extent to which the Seller is not obliged to do so pursuant to any applicable Incoterm under Clause 5, Seller will cause any carrier engaged by Seller to insure all shipments of Goods.
